YOUR EDUCATION

Tips: In this section we will show future auditors that there are many paths to a career in audit. Provide guidance that shows the variety of different educational paths people take to get to a career in audit.

I. Now let's think back. Walk us through the education or training you've received. (List in chronological order from oldest to most recent.) - Populate all that apply

- High School [Didn't complete high school] [GED]
- Undergraduate Institution and Major/Degree
- Graduate Institution and Major/Degree
- Doctorate Institution and Major/Degree
- Institution/Program Name and Certification/License

II. How related were your studies to the work you do now?

Not Related

Somewhat Related

Very Related

III. For someone aspiring to be in your job, would you recommend they follow your same educational path?

Yes

No

IV. What's the ideal educational path you'd recommend for someone aspiring to be in your job? - Add undergraduate major or degree

DISCOURAGEMENT YOU FACED

Tips: Future auditors may face some setbacks. Help them out by shedding some light on some of the negative feedback, misconceptions or discouragement you may have heard throughout your career. Take an open and constructive approach to this section.

We all face criticism from others—and maybe even ourselves—about our choices and aspirations. Some of it is well-meaning, while some of it is just negative noise. But all of it can steer us away from what we really want to do. Please share the discouragement you heard on your road.

I. I heard... (255 characters)

Who said this? Select 1 answer

<input type="checkbox"/> Parents	<input type="checkbox"/> Society in general
<input type="checkbox"/> Family	<input type="checkbox"/> I said this to myself
<input type="checkbox"/> Friends	<input type="checkbox"/> I'd rather not say
<input type="checkbox"/> Peers
<input type="checkbox"/> Teachers

II. Help someone who is facing similar discouragement by sharing how you dealt with the noise you heard (and might still hear to this day!) (500 characters)

YOUR WORK LIFE

Tips: Future auditors are curious to know what a day in-the-life may look like. Help them out by giving them a window into your day!

- I. For those who are interested in the nuts and bolts of what you do, describe what a typical day at work looks like. (500 characters)

- II. Most technical skills are gained by hitting the books. Thinking beyond what's learned in school, what other experiences, qualities, or skills are helpful to succeed in your job? (500 characters)

YOUR HURDLES & YOUR LIFE ROUTE

Tips: Help future auditors understand your own career trajectory along with any big wins or major hurdles you encountered along the way.

I. Some life routes are linear, while others zigzag. Which best describes the road you took to get to where you are?

It was straightforward

It took a while to figure out

I tried a bunch of things

II. Life isn't a straight line to a goal. It's packed with twists and turns that can steer us to a totally unexpected place—a place that's almost always more fulfilling than anything we could have planned.

Jot down, in chronological order, some pivotal steps in your life—from struggles to triumphs—and help others see that the road to success isn't always as straightforward as it appears, but that's OK. (Up to 8 entries – 200 characters each)
